A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

RETAILERS MUST STOP ALL WASTAGE

Wastage of food, time and labor by retail dealers in the District was today ordered still further minimized by Clarence R. Wilson, food administrator.

The order provides that foodstuffs offered for delivery by wholesale merchants and jobbers at the retailer's store, shall be accepted, unless good reason is given.

"It is a common practice in the District of Columbia for retail dealers to order foodstuffs from wholesale merchants to be sent to their stores C. O. D., or upon credit, and when the goods so ordered are offered for delivery, for the retail dealers to refuse to accept such goods and to order them returned," said Mr. Wilson. "This practice is the plain cause of great waste of food, time, labor, and hauling. We have determined to put an end to this practice."

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY
Italian Ambassador and Countess di Cellere to Celebrate King of Italy's Birthday—Important Concerts—Activities of the Diplomats.

THE ITALIAN AMBASSADOR AND COUNTESS MACCHI DI CELLERE will give a brilliant reception on Monday evening, November 11, at the embassy, in honor of the birthday of the King of Italy. The festivities will have an especial significance as a celebration of Italy's great victory over Austria-Hungary. The guests will include members of the embassies and legations in Washington, the members of the various Italian missions resident here, the heads of all foreign missions now in town, cabinet officers, heads of departments of the Government of the United States, and representatives of official and resident society.

The reception will be the first important function given at the Italian embassy since the beginning of the war, with the exception of the entertaining in honor of M. R. H. the Prince of Udine, who came to Washington at the head of the Italian war mission.

MRS. CHARLES GREENE GRIMES,
Wife of Ensign Grimes, U. S. N. She was formerly Miss Lucy Burleson, and is the daughter of the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson.

The President and Mrs. Wilson spent this morning on the golf links. Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson accompanied Miss Margaret Wilson, the President's eldest daughter, who is now in France, is booked for a year on the French and camp circuit, according to latest advice. She will sing in the Y. M. C. A. K. of C. Salvation Army and other clubs and wherever large numbers of men in uniform assemble. In the entertainment unit with Miss Wilson are Rosa David, tenor, and Mrs. David, who will accompany the singers, a portable organ will provide the accompaniment.

Miss Wilson has been traveling almost incessantly and with a desire only for those courtesies usually extended to a wearer of the "Y" uniform. It is not unlikely, however, that as her travels bring her into their respective vicinities she will be presented to President, Poincaré, King George and Queen Mary and King Victor Emmanuel, as well as to the allied military leaders in Europe.

Miss Wilson sang before American soldiers at nearly 100 concerts in American training camps this year at the request of Thomas S. McClure, chairman of the entertainment section of the Y. M. C. A. The men who heard her in the United States carried in France reports of her singing, and as a result there was a demand for the President's daughter to sing in the war zone.

Mrs. Newbold Noyes and her small son, Newbold Noyes, Jr., will spend the winter in New York with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Noyes' daughter, Miss Helen Noyes, is in France.

Mrs. Noyes' house in S street is occupied this winter by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blagden, Captain Noyes' brother-in-law and sister. Mrs. Blagden is at present in New York recuperating after an attack of influenza.

Expected Here.

Mrs. Frederick Henry Prince, Jr., wife of Captain Prince, U. S. A., who is now in New England with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Henry Prince, Jr., is expected in Washington some time this month and will be the guest of Mrs. John Ballentine Pinney. Captain Prince was formerly in the French flying corps, and was transferred to the American army when the United States entered the war. He is now in France.

Mrs. Prince is the daughter of W. P. G. Harding, of the Federal Reserve Board. She will not be presented to society this year on account of the war, but will probably make her debut next winter. Miss Alice Harding is still in school.

News has reached Washington of the marriage of Miss Pleasant Stovall, daughter of the American Minister to Switzerland and Mrs. Pleasant A. Stovall, and Robert Leslie Craigie, secretary of the British legation at Bern, which took place on Wednesday, October 30, in the English Church at Bern. The wedding was attended by a large delegation of American and British diplomats. John W. Davis, the recently appointed American ambassador to Great Britain, was among the guests.

Gen. Henri Claudon, of the French high commission, will entertain at dinner Monday evening, November 11.

Mrs. Thomas F. Logan will go to New York the first of next week for the horse show, which begins Monday and lasts through Friday, November 15. The gross proceeds of the horse show will go to the Red Cross. Among other Washingtonians who expect to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Davies, Mrs. Peter Golet Gerry, and Captain and Mrs. Lacombe.

At Initial Concert.

The first of this season's series of concerts by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, was given yesterday afternoon at the National Theater and was attended by a brilliant audience, which crowded the theater to capacity. Haug's box, the others in the party being Mrs. Richard Townsend, Mrs. Henry Purdy and Mrs. Woodbury Blair. Mrs. Franklin K. Lane and Mrs. Hare Lippincott were among Mrs. Marshall's guests.

Logan 3d, who is now in France, and who was married about two years ago to Miss Towers, of St. Louis. His father, Capt. John A. Logan, of civil war fame, Senator from Illinois for many years.
